The House was established in Reims in 1843, by Joseph Krug, a visionary non-conformist with an uncompromising philosophy. With a very original approach to Champagne making, he decided to go beyond the notion of vintage to create the most generous expression of Champagne, every year. Thus, he founded a House in which all Champagnes are of the same level of distinction.

The Egly-Ouriet estate was created after the Second World War, when Francis Egly's grandfather started making wine with 3 hectares of vines in the Ambonnay Grand Cru. His descendants acquired, by purchase or marriage, 9 other hectares, including the magnificent plot and vineyard of Les Crayères. In total, the vineyard covers 10 hectares in the Ambonnay, Bouzy and Verzenay Grand Crus and 2 in the Vrgigny Premier Cru. Today, with his friend Anselme Selosse, he is perhaps the only producer who can claim the title of cult winemaker.

The two partners are probably even at the origin of what Jacky Rigaux calls the awakening of the terroirs in the region, as they were among the first to positively shake up the local habits and customs in the 1990s in terms of viticulture and cellar approach, in order to produce "less but better", reconnecting the vine with its soil and the wine with its place.

CHAMPAGNE
TARLANT
VIGNERONS DEPUIS 1687

The Tarlants have been making wines in the Vallée de la Marne since 1687.

There hasn't been one generation skipped in over 300 years. Benoît and Mélanie Tarlant are the 12th consecutive generation working the family land. Traditions run deep here, much to the benefit of this region's history and future: the family continues to grow all seven permitted varieties in Champagne, and produce one of only five ungrafted wines in the whole region. The style of these Champagne reveals a skilful and well-balanced use of wood and the exaltation of each micro-terroir: an elegant and balanced style that retains all the charm of the great Champagne. The terroir and the tradition of Tarlant are in the safe hands of brother and sister Benoit and Melanie Tarlant.

Known for producing characterful and elegantly textured white Burgundies, Thierry has continued to enhance the domaine's reputation through meticulous vineyard management and a non-interventionist approach in the cellar. The domaine now spans 13 hectares, producing wines that offer a refined expression of Chassagne-Montrachet and Saint-Aubin terroirs.

Domaine Marc Morey & Fils

Established in the early 20th century by Fernand Morey, Domaine Marc Morey & Fils is a testament to Burgundian excellence, now expertly managed by Sabine Mollard, the founder's great-granddaughter.

Winemaking techniques are designed to preserve the freshness and liveliness of each vintage, as well as the distinctive character of each individual parcel's terroir – that combination of minerality, richness, elegance, and finesse that makes a vineyard site a distinctive impression and unique wine. Sabine's goal is to make wines that are expressive and open when young, but also possess the structure and balance for aging and complex development.

CHATEAU RAYAS

The crown jewel in Châteauneuf-du-Pape legend Jacques Reynaud's holdings, nephew Emmanuel Reynaud assumed control of the estate following Jacques' death in 1997.

Emmanuel has followed in his uncle's footsteps, adhering to the same traditional techniques that made the wines so revered.

The vineyards are tended with the same organic methods used in all of Emmanuel's properties and are unique in that they are planted in sandy soil instead of the galets common to the appellation.

Hand-harvested grapes from 13 hectares of vineyards see whole-cluster fermentation and native yeasts.

Entirely free from modern interventions, Emmanuel's wines are always some of the most coveted in the Rhône.

CONTERNO GIACOMO

Giacomo Conterno is an Italian estate just outside Monforte d'Alba in Piedmont, in the south of the Barolo DOCG zone. It is best known for two great Barolos: the Cascina Francia and the Monfortino Riserva, both of which are long-lived and earthy.

In 1908, Giovanni Conterno opened a small tavern in the village of San Giuseppe, making Barolo to supply the business. The first Riserva was bottled around the time of World War I, and was one of the first examples of producer-bottled Barolo at a time when most were sold in bulk for early consumption.

Some of the most ageworthy wines on the planet!

Valdicava means literally “valley of Cava” and the estate is located in a valley in the north side of Montalcino, in an area called Montosoli. The estate was founded by Bramante Martini in 1953, when he decided to take the opportunity of returning to the property where his ancestors, centuries earlier, used to be sharecroppers.

Bramante Martini distinguished himself as the founder of Consorzio di Brunello in 1967, actively contributing to the prestige of this famous appellation.

In 1987, his grandson, Vincenzo Abruzzese, started involving himself in the business. He still runs the estate to this day and is widely credited with having brought Valdicava’s name to the level of excellence, not only within Tuscany and Montalcino, that it enjoys today.
